My dear Mr. Lummis:

Before the holidays I received the announcement of your book "Flowers of our Lost Romance" which was addressed to Mr. Ripley who has not been at the Library for over two years. Miss Garoutte of the State Library speaks very highly of your book and I am glad to order a copy for the Library.

You understand, of course, that we can not enclose our remittance with the order. Kindly send a bill in duplicate which we will put through our Auditor's Office as soon as received. It takes about thirty days for a bill to be paid after its receipt.

Yours very truly,

Dusart Smith

Dear Sir:

We have recently seen an advertisement for your publication entitled "Flowers of our lost romance".

The first of the year we ordered "Spanish songs of old California". Will you kindly let us know if this is a series of books and if it is the second volume which is now being advertised? If so, we would like to place an order for the book.

Yours very truly,

Dear Madam:-

The phrase "Flowers of Our Lost Romance" is simply a definition of what my "Spanish Songs of Old California" really are--a poetic (historic) classification of them. It is not a volume by itself, though that would make a very good title for a book of this very text.

I am at work on a "Second Book" of the songs and would have had it out before now except for unavoidable delays. I trust it will come along early in January and am sure your library will wish copies of it.

Sincerely Yours,

DrL/GK
